

Ballot Measure Failures of Conservatives in 2008

Fifty percent of the states that allow ballot initiatives have seen right-wing failures this year. This map highlights some of the major measures conservatives attempted to qualify, but failed to do so for a lack of public support. Only a few months ago, these measures looked like a sure bet. Voters saw it a different way - rejecting the politics of divisiveness and dangerous gimmicks that don't address the real issues they care most about this election cycle.
